

Cumberland County Regular Democratic Organization

Election 2024

Newsletter August 15, 2024

be part of the change that is coming. With President Joe Biden stepping out of the race, we welcome Vice President Kamala Harris to the top of our ticket. If you want to help the Democratic Party make history, join us in our efforts to ensure all our candidates are successful. In coming newsletters, we will give you information you may need to stand your democratic ground in mixed company. Thank you in advance for your support. Our candidates are available for special events, meet and greets or coffee talks in your home as their schedules allow.

This newsletter is to share campaign news and encourage committee members and friends to

Cumberland County Fair

Volunteer's and candidates showed up to support the Cumberland County Democratic Election Tent.

Celeste Riley, Robert Austino and John Capizola were visited by Congressional candidate Joe Salerno and Senate candidate Congressman Andy Kim staff. It was a warm week but a lot of fun. Many county residents stop to say hi and learn about our candidates and message.

Special thanks to Angela Bardoe, Valerie Ridgeway-Carter, Sandy Acevedo, Kathy Austino, Al and Priscilla Jones, Maria Laboy, for making time to connect to voters and future voters.

Meet and Greet

Carlos and Kristi Mercado invited their friends and family to meet with Commissioner Candidate John Capizola and the Democratic team. On hand with Capizola were County Clerk candidate -Celeste Riley, County Commissioner candidate- Robert Austino and Congressional candidate - Joe Salerno. Each candidate took a moment to thank everyone and share their campaign message. The food and company were amazing. Many thanks to the Mercado family for hosting such a great event.

Left to right:

Joe Salerno, Celeste Riley,
Robert Austino and John
Capizola

Anyone interested in hosting a meet and greet with personal family and friends, please contact Rick Dawson at dawson6858@gmail.com for schedule or support.

Puerto Rican Parade in Vineland NJ

The Puerto Rican Sunday Parade processed through Vineland and to festival at Landis Park where they celebrated Puerto Rican culture. Candidates on hand for the parade were County Clerk Celeste Riley, Congressional Candidate Joe Salerno, Commissioner Candidates Robert Austino and John Capizola. The streets were lined with county residents adding to the fun of the parade and spirit of the celebration.

Special thanks to State Senator John Burzichelli for the first-class ride.

You are invited to an event hosted by Terrigno's Fairfield Inn

in support of

Robert Austino

for Cumberland County Commissioner

Wednesday, August 14th 6:00 – 8:00 PM
153 Bridgeton Fairton Rd, Bridgeton, NJ 08302

Donation 100.00
Make Checks payable to:
EFO Robert Austino
RSVP/Questions
Sandy 609-805-2706

Mail to:
Chance and McCann
201 E Commerce St
Bridgeton NJ 08302

Printed in House

Puerto Rican Festival Vineland NJ

Music, music, music, and plenty more with a variety of food to choose from. This event was attended by thousands over the course of the week. Congratulation to Leo Negrón and the Festival Committee for a job well done. Also, and in particular, many thanks to the City of Vineland professionals who ensure the safety of all who attended. Candidates and volunteers were on hand to share information and answer questions about the election and our choice for that election. Available for conversation under the tent were Candidates Celeste Riley, Robert Austino, John Capizola. Also available, Joe Salerno, Congressional Candidate. Each Candidate address all of those who attended Sunday.

Special Thanks to Angela Bardoe, Marie Laboy, Kathy Austino, and Bonnie Martin for being available to share information and answer questions

Share with those who want to Volunteer to help with election. You can sign up online or email dawson6858@gmail.com

Door to Door

Phones

Signs

Meet and Greets

